Shipping Information

Delivery time is six to eight weeks from date of order. Many times you will receive your order in one to two weeks. However, due to large orders and availability of magnets within the industry (we must guess our orders of raw magnets six months in advance), we reserve the right for a six to eight week delivery date. Thank you for your patience. We always try to get your orders out as fast as possible. We believe you will find our top quality, high strength magnets worth the wait.

All shipments are sent USPS or UPS Ground unless other arrangements are made. Due to rate increases by UPS our shipping rates could change without notice.

Shipping weights are listed next the heading "Shipping Weight" with each product in the catalog. The shipping weights are also listed on the price list. Please add together the weight of all products ordered to determine the total shipping cost.
